Gerard Bertrand AN 940 Cabernet Sauvignon, France

Notes of blackcurrant and black fruit with a hint of chocolate and mocha are revealed. On the palate, the wine is quite concentrated with powerful tannins well integrated. This wine is tasty, complex with woody notes with a nice freshness on the finish.

Gerard Bertrand AN 940 Viognier, France

Ripe apricot emerges on the nose, accompanied by subtle vanilla accents. On the palate, its oily and generous texture caresses the palate, highlighting the intense flavors of candied apricot, ripe peach and a delicate woody touch. The finish is harmoniously balanced, leaving a soft mineral imprint that persist pleasantly in the mouth.

Two Hands Angels' Share Shiraz, Australia

Bright, deep dark red with a luminous purple core. Vibrant notes of blueberries with an overlay with dried violet petals and woody spices. Notes of primary blue fruits combined with liquorice straps and a brilliantly fragrant floral overtone.

$58.00 per bottle / $13.80 per glass

Two Hands Lots of In Lots of Out Riesling, Australia

Light and bright is the order of the day. This wine is very light straw in colour and showcases aromas of peach, lime, apple, Bickford's cordial, white flowers, mineral and spice. The palate presence has a terrific mouth weight and feel, as the fruit draws you in the acidity simply floats away. The fruit balances the acid out so well and it draws you along the palate and leaves you with no tartness or bitterness, just a mouth-watering succulence.

$58.00 per bottle / $13.80 per glass
