Vigna Madre Becco Reale Pecorino IGP, Italy

This Pecorino offers a complex and elegant nose, with prominent notes of white-fleshed fruits (like peach and pear), complemented by intriguing hints of sage and lavender. On the palate, it is fresh, decisive, and savory, with a distinct minerality and a well-structured, balanced taste. It's often described as aromatic and fruity, with a lovely roundness and a lingering finish.

Vigna Madre Becco Reale Montepulciano d'Abruzzo, Italy

This Montepulciano d'Abruzzo displays an intense ruby red color with violet hues. The nose is rich with notes of red fruits (blackberry, plum, cherry, raspberry), violets, and a touch of licorice, sometimes with hints of vanilla and chocolate. On the palate, it is well-structured with soft, sweet tannins and a long, persistent finish. It's a medium-bodied, juicy wine with a fresh profile.

Château Romer R De Romer, France

This is dry white wine from the Sauternes region, normally known for its dessert wines, the wine is a refreshing white with a nose of white flowers, delicate fruit and hint of buttery aromas. On the palate, freshness rubs shoulders with fruit, fat and roundness that line the palate. The balance is of high quality and the tasting evolves as the minutes go by.

$49.00 per bottle / $12.00 per glass

Jip Jip Rocks Shiraz, Australia

A typically South Australian Shiraz with a welcoming palate, lifted spice and ripe mulberry/blackberry aromas are complemented with chocolate, cedar and cinnamon on the nose. Similar berry fruits show through on the opulent, textured palate with a lingering finish.

$49.00 per bottle / $12.00 per glass
